VOLUME 9, NUMBER 1,

WRANGELL, ALASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1911

$2.50 PER YEAR, 10c. PER COPY

Alaska Appropriations

The direct appropriations for Alaska which have been recommended to congress by the secretary of the treasury for the next fiscal year aggregate $1,309,930.

The estimates of principal direct appropriations are as follows:

Lighthouse and other navigation aids, $376,400.

Roads and trails (extra), $100,000.

Cable and telegraph improvements, $75,000.

Marking Alaska boundry, $200,000.

Care of insane, $50,000.

Game protection (increase of $5,000), $15,000.

Education of natives, $200,000.

Reindeer stations $12,000.

Fisheries, $41,530.

Seal fisheries, $100,000.

Surveys of land, $60,000.

Government buildings, Juneau (to begin) $40,000.

Executive mansion, Juneau, $40,000, totaling $1,309,930.

The total is less than one-half of the entire amount of public monies to be expended for territorial objects, the remainder being included in general appropriations.

The Old Time Dance

Chief Shakes and John Kadi-shad assisted by about twenty local natives entertained a big crowd at Redmen's hall Saturday night with an old time native dance. The Mask dance, Potlach dance, Bear dance, Groundhog dance, and Tyee dance were given in good shape to the general satisfaction of all concerned. The costumes were fine and nothing was lacking to make the occasion one long to be remembered.

New Cannery

The Kasaan cannery, which was destroyed by fire last fall, will be rebuilt so as to operate in 1911. It will be made a complete two-line cannery.

Richard Hofstad and his sloop Helen were in port today.

That Masquerade Ball

Wrangell has had masquerades aplenty in the past, but it were safe to say that never in her history has she had a more successful one than that of Monday night of this week. It was all right from beginning to end, and reflects great credit upon the committee having it in hand. In number and originality of costumes it was far and away ahead of anything of the kind ever attempted in Wrangell.

The prizes of which there were 18 in all, were all good ones, and all well contested for. Of course the prize cake walk was the main event of the evening, and the only drawback about it was the fact that but three couples participated therein, Miss Cook and Fred Lewis Mrs. Fred Leonard and Jess Dawes, and Mrs. Mathis and Sam Kincaid, in the order named. The decision of the Judges, Mrs. Collins and Messrs. Tait and Bushell, was that Mrs. Mathis was the best one of the ladies, with Miss Cook as second, while Fred Lewis carried off the first prize offered for the gentlemen, with Mr. Kincaid a close second, and the hearty applause following the announcement of the decision showed that it met with the approval of the entire assembly.

Dr. Dawes, as the Cream of Wheat man, and Wm. Lewis, as the Chinaman, each fulfilled the requirements of their characters so well, that they were accorded the first and second prizes respectively offered for the best sustained male characters. Mrs. Gartley in her regal gown and coronet won the first prize in the some class for the ladies, while Johnnie Kolb, as the lady of color dressed in blue, captured the second.

Mrs. Hood, in her many colored paper gown, was considered the most gorgeously dressed lady, and Harry Gartley, as the King of Hearts, the most gorgeously dress-man. Mrs. Bushell, as Alaska, and Frank Adams as Uncle Sam won the prizes as the best dressed. Mrs. McGehee, as the Hobble Skirt Lady and Charley Borch as the Beer Man captured the prizes for the most comical characters, Mrs. Fred Leonard, as a colored girl, and Mr. Worthington, as a Calico Gentleman, were the prize waltzers, while Mrs. Fred Patton of Petersburg, as a Scotch Lassie, and Capt. Brunn, of the Northland as the Coon in Flour Sacks, won the prizes as the best two-steppers. Mrs. J. E. Worden and Chris Shastad furnished the music for the occasion, which of course guaranteed its quality, and the big crowd of maskers kept them steadily at work. There were probably more spectators present than ever before attended anything of the kind in Wrangell, the capacity of the hall being taxed.

Bound Over To Grand Jury

Because he had furnished liquor to Eddie Brockley and wife, and Tom Whittemore, H. Kimura, a Japanese was bound over to await the action of the next grand jury, by Commissioner Thomas, Tuesday afternoon. According to the evidence, the Jap went to the Brockley house three times on Monday evening each time taking intoxicants with him. Fearing arrest he boarded the Humboldt and tried to get away, but was arrested, and the hearing and bind-over followed.

Charles Demmert, who had been down to the states on a business trip, returned on the Humboldt, and left for Shakan on the Kelly.

On Their Way Up River

Wm Murdock of Seattle, and R. B. Jones, of Vancouver, B. C., were passengers to Wrangell on the Humboldt, Tuesday. They are on their way up the Stikine, and will leave as soon as the ice on the lower river is solid enough for travel. Mr. Murdock is an old timer in the Dawson country, having taken in and operated one of the first sawmills ever in that region. Mr. Jones is a well known miner of lower British Columbia. While they have made no statement of their destination, the general impression around town is that they are on their way to inspect the Kirk property on the Stikine between the Clearwater river and Glenora. Mention of the probability of a deal being on for this property was made in The Sentinel a couple of weeks ago.

The Uncle Dan, which went to Ketchikan for an overhauling, arrived back in good shape Wednesday, and will leave for the West Coast about midnight tonight.

Fishing Boats In Trouble

The fishing schooners Chicago and Zapora have both been in hard luck lately. The former reports running afoul of a monster devil-fish off Coronation Island which fastened on the rudder and in tearing the monster loose the rudder was wrenched out of its bearings so that the boat had to be dry-docked upon arriving in Seattle, when part of the tentacle of the octopus was found stuck fast to the vessel's shoe.

The Zapora, after striking on Nesbet reef two or three weeks ago, made all speed to Seattle for repairs, a partial survey revealed the fact that she had been badly wrenched, so her boilers and engines, both of which need overhauling, were taken out of the hull. The intention was to dock her immediately, but during the night she sunk while lying at the wharf. Subsequently she was raised and docked, and the discovery was then made that two rocks had pierced her hull but had fortunately stuck in the holes until the removal of the engines and boilers had allowed the hull to sag and the rocks dropped out resulting in the boat sinking.

When she struck the reef, fully three thousands dollars worth of gear was thrown over board to lighten the vessel, the greater part of which was recovered by Charles Darwell and brought over to town the latter part of last week. It was a good streak of luck for Charley who will probably realize fully $1500.00 on his find.

J. Linderberger, Inc., the salmon dealers, have moved their main offices from Astoria, Oregon, to Seattle, and will cater more extensively to the Alaska trade.

The first homestead entry filed in the Tanana is officially described as the south 1-2 of Sec. 12, Township 1, north, of Range 2, west.

The Alaska Electric Company, organized by business and mining men of Seward and vicinity, contemplates the construction of a telephone system from Seward to the Innoko and Iditarod.

Webster's NEW INTERNATIONAL Dictionary.
(G. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass.)
surpasses the old International as much as that book exceeded its predecessor. On the old foundation a new superstructure has been built.
The reconstruction has been carried on through many years by a large force of trained workers, under the supervision of Dr. W. T. Harris,
former United States Commissioner of Education,
and reinforced by many eminent specialists.
The definitions have been rearranged and amplified. The number of terms defined has been more than doubled. The etymology, synonyms, pronunciation, have received unsurpassed scholarly labor. The language of English literature for over seven centuries, the terminology of the arts and sciences, and the
every-day speech of street, shop, and household, are presented with fullness and clearness.
In size of vocabulary, in richness of general information, and in convenience of consultation, the book sets a new mark in lexicography.

A fine vein of coal, from four to six feet thick, has been discovered in the new Iditarod section, but as all coal lands in Alaska have been withdrawn from entry, the people of the far north may still keep warm by rubbing their hands together.

By the way, does any one know what has become of one William O'Connor? When last heard from he was giving Ed Orr a hard stern chase.—Iditarod Nugget.

If he should come tonight--- THE THIEF

THE thief comes prepared—prepared to take your valuables. Carries the necessary tools. Is expert in their use. One of his tools is the revolver. In plain words, he is prepared to take your life. His deadly intent and expertness makes up for his revolver's awkwardness and slowness.

You have neither expertness or deadly intent. You cannot afford to stake everything upon a wrist-straining, trigger-flinching, slow-as-molasses firearm. Settle this matter to-day for the sake of your family. Get the Savage automatic. The only gun that points straight, shoots true, fires fast, without practice. It is the only gun you can shoot straight any time you pick it up. Ten shots, one to a trigger pull. Reloads a fresh magazine of ten shots in a flash. Our free book "The Tenderfoot's Turn," by Bat Masterson tells why you point the Savage instinctively true.
